

I believe that if the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) defeats Indiana's Telephone Privacy law this will be a blow to the state as well as my right to privacy. We could learn a lot from Wisconsin who has extremely strict laws pertaining to "cold calling" and the residents love it...we should pay attention.

Sincerely

David J. Eenigenburg